Playford? What's that?

If you don't know anything about this type of dance go no further than our own Robert Burns - these might have been the dances he would have enjoyed. And around the same period, Mr. Darcy would have been courting Elizabeth with the same dances.

They are elegant and executed to the finest of tunes, many classical.

The dances are suitable for all ages and abilities, so even if you are a complete beginner you can join in and have fun.

"It's great to find a dance style in which people may come and join with no experience at all."

Bernadette Culkin

This year we welcome Bernadette (Bernie) Culkin as our weekend teacher.

Bernie has been involved in the setting up and maintenance of the Pat Shaw Legacy web site, well worth a look.

Her growing reputation as a dance teacher precedes her, so we shall look forward to a great and fun weekend.

The Musicians Nicolas and Michael

Nicolas started playing for dancing at the age of 15. Since 1989 he has led his band, The Assembly Players, playing for dances and balls in the UK, in Europe and in the USA. He has also led them in 19 English Country Dance recordings and one Scottish Ceilidh CD. He has been awarded the English Folk Dance and Song Society's Gold Badge for a lifetime's achievement.

Michael is pianist on the BA Modern Ballet course at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland. He is also Musical Director, Arranger and Pianist for 'Caledon' (three Scottish Tenors) and has toured the world with them, playing all manner of shows. He freelances with many ensembles including the RSN and Scottish Ballet.
